O'Loughlin's Dashing Play Wins.

Young Californian Downs American Tennis Veteran—Highlanders Cain Some on Athletics—Fittsburg Pases the Giants.

Brooklyn, Mass., July 22.—The greatest sensation of a tennis tournament with respect to the east, outburst in the semi-finals of the Longwood singles, when Maurice O'Loughlin, the whirlwind player from the Pacific coast and a member of last year's Davis cup team, defeated Beals C.
Wright, former national champion, and America's mainstay in international contests, in four hard fought sets. The young Californian, who is making only his second campaign in the east, outgeneraled and outplayed Wright.
Should the westerner maintain the speed of today's game experts predict to beat Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia, the intercollegiate champion in the finals.

The eastern doubles championship also furnished its daily upset when E. H. Whitney Boston interscholastic singles champion, and Richard Bishop of the Longwood club, beat G. F. Tou-chard and C. B. Gardner of New York in four sets in the semi-finals. The losers, who had become favorites after defeating Wright and Little, slumped badly today, while the Boston pair played with a dashing precision and confidence. Whitney and Bishop tomorrow will meet the Yale team of R.
A. Holden, Jr., and F. M. Watrous of the eastern title.

WRESTLER'S BACK HURT.

BOUT DECLARED OFF.

Young Major Injured at Westerly—Abe the Newsboy Puts Away His Man in Fourth Round.

A crowd of over 500 saw a good card of wrestling and boxing Friday night at the end of the summer season.
The auspices of the Pawcatuck A. C., for which the main match was between Jack Wick of Providence and Young Major of Westerly, who was injured in the fourth round. The match was go to a finish, best two out of three, for a side bet of $100. It came to a stop at the end of the fourth round.
Wick, when Young Major's back was hurt as they were struggling towards the edge of the ring. Neither had received a fall and the match was declared off. The men will meet again later.

Abe the Newsboy of New London and Harry West of Providence then went on for a six round bout with the gloves. This was Abe's fight when he put West away with a knockout in the fourth. Henry Collins of Westerly was referee and Ed McKnight timekeeper.

LANGFORD VS. KAUFMAN

IN PHILA. BASEBALL PARK.

Two Big Sluggers to Meet for Six Rounds.

Philadelphia, July 22.—Arrangements were completed here today for a six-round bout between Sam Langford and Al Kaufman at the Philadelphia National league baseball park on the night of August 10. Harry Edwards, manager of the National league, announced the fight.

Langford, who is now in the prime of his career, is a former champion of the world in the heavyweight division. Kaufman, on the other hand, is a former champion of the world in the light weight division.

WALERS TAKE CLOSE GAME.

Middletown is Beaten on Home Grounds, 5 to 4.

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Middletown, July 22.—New London beat Middletown 5 to 4, this afternoon in a closely contested game in which Rieger and Bates were lined up in a pitching duel, while the work of both with the stick was a contributing factor in the run getting. Bates fielded his position in fine form.

Harris lost the game for Middletown by miffing a fly in the seventh when two were out. A single and Rieger's double followed on which the deciding pair of runs were scored. The attendance was about 150. Johnson, a catcher of the Middletown team, im-pired, and the game ran smoothly on his decisions.
